WORKS ON ARCHITECTURE, ARCHÆOLOGY, &c.

PUBLISHED BY JOHN HENRY PARKER, OXFORD; and 377, STRAND, LONDON.

A GLOSSARY of TERMS used in Grecian, Roman, Italian, and Gothic Architecture. In the edition the greater part of Professor Willis's "Architectural Nomenclature of the Middle Ages" is incorporated; the terms of Mediæval Carpentry are introduced; with numerous additional examples of Open Timber Roofs, also of Tile Pavements, &c. &c. The etymologous words in French, Italian, and German are all given. The fifth edition. 2 vols. 8vo. with 1,700 woodcuts, 1l. 1s.

AN INTRODUCTION to the STUDY of GOTHIC ARCHITECTURE. By JOHN HENRY PARKER, F.S.A. 18mo with woodcuts, 4s. 6d.

RICKMAN'S GOTHIC ARCHITECTURE: AN ATTEMPT to DISCRIMINATE the DIFFERENT STYLES of ARCHITECTURE in ENGLAND. By the late THOMAS RICKMAN, F.S.A. With Thirty Engravings on Steel by Le Keux, &c., and 668 on Wood, of the best examples from Original Drawings by F. Mackenzie, O. Jewitt, and F. H. de la Motte. Fifth edition. 8vo. 21s.

"The majority of the illustrations are from original drawings, executed expressly for the purpose, and have the disastrous effect of rendering all former editions of the work comparatively worthless. Those who have Rickman, equally with those who have not, must buy the present edition. The illustrations are clear, precise, sparkling; and we commend the work as absolutely necessary for every architectural student."—The Builder.

"It is with pleasure that we see that this work, although got up with great perfection, is within the reach not only of architects and the higher order of artists, but also of the masons and operatives into whose hands the execution of our funereal monuments is now so generally entrusted; and they may be assured that an attentive study of this valuable book would so improve their intellects and feelings, that they could not fail to improve the class of work on which they are so much engaged."—Architect.

THE ART-JOURNAL.—The Volume for 1851 is now ready. This Volume, with the Volumes for 1849 and 1850, form a complete Series of the ART-JOURNAL up to 1852, inasmuch as the earlier Volumes, under the title of "The Art-Union Journal," do not necessarily form part of the work. The Vernon Gallery was commenced in January, 1849.

The Three Volumes, each published (bound) at One Guinea and a Half, contain one hundred and nine fine Engravings on Steel, six Prints in Colours, and two thousand Engravings on Wood.

The Volumes may be ordered of any Bookseller in Town or Country.

The Volume of the "ART-JOURNAL ILLUSTRATED CATALOGUE" may now be obtained of any Bookseller at the price of One Guinea.

This Volume will be soon out of print: it cannot be reprinted; and there is no question of its largely augmenting in value, when classed among rare works: those by whom it is required will therefore do well to obtain copies early.

Odd parts of the ART-JOURNAL to complete volumes, may be obtained of any Bookseller.

BEAUTIFUL CHRISTMAS and NEW-YEAR'S GIFT.—The ART-JOURNAL ILLUSTRATED CATALOGUE (price One Guinea) is recommended as a peculiarly appropriate Gift Book for the Christmas of 1851. "It is at once interesting, useful, and beautiful;" "a valuable reminder of the Exhibition to those by whom it was visited, and equally valuable to those to whom the enjoyment was denied;" "a beautiful book for the drawing room;" and "a useful instructor for all classes." This volume may still be obtained of any Bookseller; but it will be soon out of print.
